A language school placement test needs to provide an accurate method of selecting class levels for students who join a course. It needs to be accurate and to give a wide range of marks - e.g. from 0 to 100 - with marks at all scores between - and for these marks to easily be interpreted (e.g. via a table) into class levels.

Introduction by Graham Davies. A âœœconcordanceâœœ, according to the Collins Cobuild English Language Dictionary (1987), is âœœAn alphabetical list of the words in a book or a set of books which also says where each word can be found and often how it is used.âœœ. I first came across the term âœœconcordanceâœœ from one of the lecturers who taught me at university during the early 1960s.
