Jamiroquai. The start of the acid jazz movement in the UK has brought a new kind of sound to people's ears. The mix of older music like jazz and funk, plus the addition of modern beats from electronic music introduces a new wave of artists dedicated to the genre. Once only a staple in the night clubs of London, the genre has spread...

Jamiroquai is a legit funk/groove/fusion band and was sometimes called acid jazz in its time strictly for marketing purposes. In the mid 90s you couldn't sell people funk - there was no audience for that in America. Jamiroquai was one of those rare 'hey real music that's got major label support' exceptions.
