I'm not a typically a fan of short story anthologies, but I'm a fan of Thomas King. So I gave it a read, and I'm glad I did. King has a way of not asking too much from a reader, and the stories in One Good Story, That One range from memoir-like narrative to surrealist folktale (sometimes this happens within the same story, too).

One Good Story, That One by Thomas King

And it's one good book, this one. This collection of stories is smart, witty, and creatively critical. Originally published in 1993, One Good Story, That One is finally available again, and it delights both the mind and the heart.
