I was intrigued with the 52-week money challenge last year. But, I was not attracted on doing it. Why? Because I do not earn weekly, I get paid twice a month. And when I receive my salary, I already budget it for the entire two weeks. So, I don't think weekly savings can work for me as well as for other people since most of them are earning twice a month like me.

Finance is a field that is concerned with the allocation of assets and liabilities over space and time, often under conditions of risk or uncertainty. Finance can also be defined as the science of money management. Participants in the market aim to price assets based on their risk level, fundamental value, and their expected rate of return. Finance can be split into three sub-categories: public ...

In finance, a loan is the lending of money by one or more individuals, organizations, or other entities to other individuals, organizations etc. The recipient (i.e. the borrower) incurs a debt, and is usually liable to pay interest on that debt until it is repaid, and also to repay the principal amount borrowed.. The document evidencing the debt, e.g. a promissory note, will normally specify ...
