A teacher (also called a school teacher or, in some contexts, an educator) is a person who helps others to acquire knowledge, competences or values.. Informally the role of teacher may be taken on by anyone (e.g. when showing a colleague how to perform a specific task). In some countries, teaching young people of school age may be carried out in an informal setting, such as within the family ...

Count by Measure Cards. Use these cards as an aid to explain the concept of time signatures and measures, and practice counting by measure. Students lay out cards into measures, using popsicle sticks (or a similar prop) for barlines, then count the number of seats in each room (i.e. 1-2-3-4, 1-2-3-4).

The high frequency word lists contain the words found in children's reading books in order of the frequency in which they occur. If students were to learn just the words contained on the very first list (words 1 to 100), they will have learned half of all the words they will come across in children's reading materials! They are especially good lists for ELL and ELD students and are great to ...
